NUTMEG STATE FEDERAL CREDIT UNION CELEBRATES INTERNATIONAL CREDIT UNION DAY BY ASKING MEMBERS TO DONATE ITEMS TO THE TROOPS

Rocky Hill, CT -- October 8, 2007: On October 18, 2007, Nutmeg State Federal Credit Union celebrates International Credit Union Day, which marks the history, tradition and spirit of the international credit union movement. In honor of this year's theme, "Together We're Better," Nutmeg State Federal Credit Union asks its members—and others in the community—to donate items to send to Connecticut-based military units and their troops deployed overseas.

Donations can be dropped off during the week of October 15-19, 2007 at any of Nutmeg State Federal Credit Union's locations (in Rocky Hill, Manchester or New Britain) and may include practical items such as batteries, socks, Tylenol, baby wipes, PowerBars and granola bars, pens, paper, DVDs, CDs, journals, portable CD players, puzzles, hard candy, gum, phone cards, etc. If members or others in the community personally know individuals who are deployed, they can call 860/513-5000 or send an email to Lisa Asadourian, lasadourian@nutmegstatefcu.org. Nutmeg will ensure that care packages are mailed specifically to those individuals.

“This day provides an opportunity for our organization to give back to our communities and to people who give so much to us,” said Loren E. Dickinson, President and CEO of Nutmeg State Federal Credit Union. “We are extremely pleased to support our soldiers and let them know how much we appreciate their sacrifices and hard work.”

Items will be shipped to—and distributed by— the local VFW Post 9965 in Yalesville.
