Your statements are now available.

Please accept the disclosure to confirm this change:

Important Disclosure –

Once you enroll in Nutmeg State FCU's e-Statement service, you will no longer receive your statement on paper through the United States Postal Service. Nutmeg State FCU will document and archive all statements to ensure future availability, whether produced electronically or in print. You will be promptly notified by e-mail each time your statement(s) is available. For important tax reporting reasons, you should always print and retain your December 31 year-end statement. In order to receive e-mail notification that your statement is available, you must maintain a current e-mail address. Your e-mail address can be updated through e-Banking. You must maintain a valid e-mail address in order to retain access to e-Statements.

You can change your Statement enrollment preferences at any time by selecting eDocuments and updating the subscription.
